19 (b) Election Tribunal

An Election Tribunal consisting of three Past Presidents of IAP Bengaluru shall be constituted every year by the Executive Board. Any complaints regarding the elections shall be referred to the Election Tribunal to examine and submit its report to the Executive Board within two weeks of receipt of a complaint. The decision of the Executive Board shall be final and binding on all the parties concerned.

In case, a member of the Election Tribunal has any conflict of interest, he shall not be a member of that Election Tribunal.

19 (c) Once the elections are declared by the Election Committee, the Code of Conduct as formulated by the Executive Board from time to time shall apply to all the contesting candidates.

19 (d) A contesting member, if he is an Executive Board member of IAP Bengaluru/ IAP, or any of its Branches, Chapters or Groups shall temporarily recuse himself from the responsibilities of that post which he has occupied in the said office until the code of conduct is in force.

19 (e) Any member desirous of contesting for any post in IAP Bengaluru must have cleared all his dues (if any) to IAP Bengaluru and must have audited the accounts and duly certified by a chartered accountant as on 31st March of that year for the period which he has held any post in IAP Bengaluru, IAP or any of its affiliated bodies, before filing his nominations.

19 (f) A Fellow or Life Member of IAP Bengaluru may propose any person who fulfils the conditions for election as a Member of IAP/ IAP Bengaluru in the category as applicable and such proposal shall be seconded by another Fellow or Life Member of IAP Bengaluru.

19 (g) The election of Office Bearers and the Members of the Executive Board of IAP Bengaluru shall be held by the secret ballot/e-ballot, as per the guidelines framed by the Executive Board/General Body of IAP Bengaluru from time to time, which shall be in line with those of the IAP.

19 (h) A member once elected as an Office Bearer shall not resign to the post and/or assume another post in IAP Bengaluru/IAP or its branches/chapters/groups till the period of the elected office is completed.

19 (i) A Life Member contesting for the post of President should have been a member of the IAP Bengaluru for ten complete years on or before 1st January of the current year to be eligible to contest for the ensuing elections and should have served as the Executive Board Member of IAP Bengaluru for at least two terms and as an Office Bearer of IAP Bengaluru for at least two terms before contesting for the post of President.

19 (j) A Life Member contesting for the post of Vice President should have been a member of the IAP Bengaluru for seven complete years on or before 1st January of the current year to be eligible to contest for the ensuing elections. He should have served at least one term as an Office Bearer of IAP Bengaluru and at least two terms as an Executive Board Member of IAP Bengaluru before contesting for the post of Vice President.

19 (k) A Life Member contesting for the post of Secretary should have been a member of IAP Bengaluru for five complete years as on or before 1st January of the current year to be eligible to contest for the ensuing elections and should have served as an Executive Board Member of IAP Bengaluru for two terms before contesting for the post of Secretary.

19 (l) A Life Member contesting for the post of Treasurer should have been a member of the IAP Bengaluru for five complete years as on or before 1st January of the current year to be eligible to contest for the ensuing elections and should have served as an Executive Board Member of IAP Bengaluru for two terms before contesting for the post of Treasurer.

19(m) A Life Member contesting for the post of Joint Secretary should have been a member of IAP Bengaluru for five complete years as on or before 1st January of the current year to be eligible to contest for the ensuing elections and should have served as Executive Board Member of IAP Bengaluru for two terms before contesting for the post of Joint Secretary.

- 19(n) A Life Member contesting for the post of Executive Board Member :
- a) should have been a member of IAP Bengaluru for three complete years as on or before 1st January of that year for the ensuing elections.
